ARTIST BIO

DJNUDLZ — born to break, built to move — is Canada's most relentless force in breakbeat music. A multidimensional talent operating simultaneously as DJ, MC, producer, vocalist, and label CEO of RFR Digital, DJNUDLZ has spent years carving out a unique lane where raw energy meets surgical precision on the decks.

Known on the mic as MC Sweat, the dual identity captures something essential about the artist: the cerebral craft of the producer colliding head-on with the street-level intensity of the MC. Whether tearing up a rave floor with thundering breaks or laying down bars over his own productions, the result is always the same — sweat-soaked, breathless, unforgettable.

Drawing from the golden era of breakbeat and rave culture while pushing the sound into territory that is unmistakably his own, DJNUDLZ is a name the dance music world is waking up to — one break at a time.

THE NOODLE DROP

A DJNUDLZ SIGNATURE MOMENT

— THE NOODLE DROP —

At the peak moment of the set, custom DJNUDLZ-branded pool noodles are launched into the crowd — a free take-home memento and an explosion of colour, chaos, and pure joy. Truly unforgettable.
